Richton Park's Electronic Recycling Program

Village of Richton Park

RICHTON PARK, IL. September 22, 2016 – Looking to get rid of those useless electronics taking up space? Richton Park is hosting a program where residents and the community can do just that! The Keeling Family Foundation, VetTech.US, and V.E.T. have partnered with the Village of Richton Park to create an initiative where citizens can drop off and properly dispose of all their collected, but unwanted E-Waste. The primary or main location that families can turn in their items will be inside Village Hall.

Accepted items for recycling include:

Battery Back up	Crock Pot	Hair Dryers	Projectors
Blenders	Curling Irons	Heaters	Radios
Bread Machines	DVD Players	Holiday Lights	Remote Controls
Cable Boxes	Electric Knives	IPods	Scanners
