Richton Park Police: Home Invasion Report

Village of Richton Park

RICHTON PARK, IL. August 17, 2016 – Richton Park, Parks & Rec is partnering with renowned Chicagoland Hip-Hop dancer Ramon “Dizzy” Maybell to offer six week Beginner and Advanced Hip-Hop classes.

Beginner students will train basic concepts when it comes to Hip-Hop choreography and other general Hip-Hop styles. Students will learn the concepts of counting, performance and teamwork. They will also learn some of the latest Hip-Hop dances while having fun doing them. By the end of the session, students will have a definite grasp on the art of the Hip-Hop movement. Students will need comfortable, loose fitting clothing and gym shoes with very little grip. Knee pads are recommended. Beginner classes are every Tuesday night starting August 30th from 6pm-7pm at the Richton Park Community Center. For ages 10 & Up, fee is just $50 for Residents and $60 for Non Residents. $12/Walk-In.

Intermediate/Advanced course will be geared toward older students with minimal to considerable experience in Hip-Hop dance. This style of dance is constantly evolving. Students will also explore different styles such as popping, locking, footwork and breakdancing. Hip-Hop takes a break from technique and allows students to explore their confidence while having fun. This class is highly energetic and includes warm up, routines and center combinations. Students will need comfortable, loose fitting clothing and gym shoes with very little grip. Knee pads are recommended but not required for intermediate students. Advances classes, for Ages 14 & Up are every Tuesday night starting August 30th as well, but from 7pm to 8pm. The advanced classes are the same prices.
